4.1 Clubs and Societies Manager’s Report

RM thanks the C&S committee members for their attendance and dedication in 2016, and notes that Alex will be joining the committee again next year.

She notes that funding has closed off for the year. O-week registrations go online next week. There are also a few changes to regulations which will be discussed later in the meeting. RM says there has been a large number of clubs, with approximately 30 clubs on probation—overall it has been a successful year.

4.3 Other Business

4.3.2 New Club Appeals

4.3.2.i Business One
Representatives from Business One enter the C&S meeting at 3.13pm.

SP welcomes Business One members to the meeting. She begins by explaining to them that the committee has looked at their appeal and has a few questions.

KS asks for them to explain how they differentiate from the 2 other cubs. Jack (from Business One) responds that they are more focused on real experience through projects. He also explains that 180 focus on consulting charitable and non-for-profit organisations, and deal exclusively with them. We focus on enabling students with a full range of businesses and skills.

BO then asks about Sydney Consulting Club’s activities compared to Business One. The representative goes on to explain that Sydney Consulting doesn’t run projects, it is more about getting a job. BO also suggests the possibility of forming a sub-committee within the club. They respond by saying that they have already run a few pilots, and explain they are much more in depth and tailored.

KS further queries about 180 degrees and the over-lap. The Business One reps say that the club is very exclusive, and competitive in general to join. He does say that they have spoken to them and that they are positive with their ideas, but have very different focuses.

SP asks them to explain how they will enrich the C&S program, to which they respond by stating they already have high expressions of interest, and have run 3 successful projects. We want to have workshops that are industry run and teach specific skills, and are fun especially when taking ownership of projects.

SP thanks the Business One members for attending, and they leave the C&S meeting at 3.26pm.

There is discussion after the members have left. SP notes that 180 is not happy with the distinction between themselves and Business One. KS agrees, but notes that in terms of Consulting there are a lot of differences and overall Business One is having a positive impact.

CR notes that there are limited spaces in 180, and this should be considered.

NM says that Consulting club do workshops about CV skills etc, whereas Business One is more projects with consulting.

BO and AB agree that there is a fair difference between consulting with non-for-profit vs profit organisations. The approach would be quite different.

LA also adds that they have trialed it for a whole Semester, and have had huge
Resolved

To recommend the Board of Directors to accept the New Club appeal of Business One and approve their New Club application, pending the amendment to their constitution: “11.4- Financial Year End of the Society in the month of March each year”, as stipulated in the recommendation.

4.3.2.ii Young Workers Club

Resolved

To recommend the Board of Directors to move the chair to Michael Rees.

Kieran Seed/ Alexander Blackwell

MR notes that there were concerns that the club was similar to the Labor Club, but have since stated the purpose of their society- to have involvement and interest in the union. AB also voices his concern regarding external affiliations if they would formalize their relationships with union.

Representatives from Young Workers Club enter at 3.45pm.

Sam (member from Young Workers) begins by clarifying that while there are members on this club that are involved in the Labor club, it was not intended to be an overlap. He believes that this club would attract a broad range of students, with current membership including non factional people, even liberals.

AB asks if the club is approved, will there be partnerships with unions outside the university. They answer by saying we are one of the only union clubs at a university across NSW and yes we would, especially working with humanitarian groups who encourage fostering student clubs.

KS asks about any affiliations with NUS. Sam answers that we don’t affiliate with them, but would like to engage with them in terms of their events eg. NUS conference.

MR thanks the Young Workers Club members, and they leave the C&S meeting at 3.54pm.

MR asks if all our satisfied with their explanation of overlap, and overall purpose of club. KS said they are only comparable in terms of unionism, but everything else is different. CR believes they are distinct, and AB thinks they did not show a substantial plan or direction for the future of the club.

Resolved

To recommend to the Board of Directors to accept the New Club Appeal of the Young Workers Club and to approve their New Club application pending the following changes to their constitution:

- 11.4: “Financial Year End of the Society in the month of January each year”
- 11.6: shall run from the 1st February to the 31st January following”

*Kieran Seed/ Chathurika Ravindra
Alexander Blackwell Abstained.*

Resolved

To recommend to the Board of Directors to move the chair back to Shannen Potter.

4.3.2.iii Stigma

Representative from Stigma enters the C&S meeting at 4.03pm.

The member explains that their focus on mental health appears to be what held them back from getting their application approved. He says we want to take on board what the C&S Office has recommended.

KS asks what alternatives will be put in place to deal with the mental aspects, and how they will deal once the doctor as an executive has left down the track. He answers that information would need to be relayed to the new executives.

SP notes that the aims have changed due to our concerns with giving counselling in a formal way. He responds that we will be similar to the other existing society, but notes that they haven’t had many events and their Facebook page is not active.

NM asks what the main goal of the society is, and what they would like to achieve. He responds that we want to be able to talk about stigmas in general, and reach out to people of different backgrounds. Also the club would be beneficial as there are many misconceptions about stigmas.

Representative from Stigma leaves the C&S meeting at 4.11pm.
RM notes the infrequency of events by another club is not enough to start a new club. KS also says that he is not convinced that the club will last, and it would dissipate after the current executive. He does acknowledge that the idea for the club is great to be having these discussions, but their aims appear vague.

Resolved

To recommend to the Board of Directors to reject the New Club Appeal of Stigma on the basis that it is not unique enough, and that the club will not enrich the USU program.

Kieran Seed/ Alexander Blackwell

4.3.2 Eye Gazing

Representative from Eye Gazing enters the C&S Meeting at 4.19pm.

KS speaks about the reason for rejection, and asks what safe guards would be put in place. The rep answers that in reality it is extremely unlikely that hallucinations would result from eye gazing, unless forced. He would be happy to include a safeguard of a time limit eg. 3 minutes.

BO talks about their use of open spaces, and funding for food/drink. He asks what they would get out of being in the C&S program and funding. He answers that they would avail of booking rooms, and food/drink to entice participation, and for social events.

LA asks about much interest had been gauged, to which he responds it is hard to determine without holding an event.

Representative from Eye Gazing leaves the C&S Meeting at 4.26pm.

AB notes that they don’t seem to have a thorough understanding of the USU program, and how the society could make use of resources.

CR also says that they haven’t held any events, and could do so outside the program. BO also adds that there doesn’t seem to be a large interest in the club, and that it is not evident what their plan is for use of funds. He doesn’t believe eye-gazing as an activity is enough to sustain a society.

Resolved

To recommend to the Board of Directors to reject the New Club Appeal of Eye Gazing Society as the club does not provide enrichment to the C&S program, and due to concerns about the longevity of the society.

4.3.2 New Club Appeals

4.3.2.v Pavlov’s Dogs

Representative from Pavlov’s Dogs enters the C&S meeting at 4.44pm.

BO asks how the club would enforce ethical standards. The rep answers that there was a misunderstanding with terminology. We are less about experimenting, and more about applying ideas from science to a more demonstration based society. He says that we would never directly test on anyone.

SP further asks about ethical conduct within the society. The rep explains that all members are well versed with ethics. SP then brings up the Psychology society and the potential similarities. SP then brings up the Psychology society and the potential similarities. SP then brings up the Psychology society and the potential similarities. He acknowledges this society, but stresses that they have become a purely social group whereas they would like to be more academic and a multi-disciplinary society. LA asks whether Pavlov’s Dogs could conduct their activities within the Psychology society, to which he explains that the culture within students is very different. They wouldn’t be open to our activities.

Representative from Pavlov’s Dogs leaves the C&S meeting at 4.58pm.
The committee agree that they are fine with the previous issues with experiments. KS believes they will provide sufficient enrichment, and have good aims.

Resolved

To recommend to the Board of Directors to accept the New Club appeal of Pavlov’s Dog and approves their New Club Application pending the following changes to the club’s constitution:

4.3 Other Business

4.3.1 Funding Applications

4.3.1.i Tea Society

BO says that judging on their appeal, the capital expenditure request appears normal and covers all bases. He did have concerns about the dates of invoices. RM and NM also raised their doubts about the application, as the items may be kept by members.

Resolved

To recommend to the Board of Directors to approve the capital expenditure funding request by the Tea Society.

Brendan O’Shea/ Chathurika Ravindra

4.3.1.ii Pen Society

The committee discuss the pricing of the pen - while the price is not so exorbitant for its type, it is still not a reasonable use of funds.

Resolved

To recommend to the Board of Directors to reject the capital expenditure request of the Pen Society, on the basis that it is not a reasonable use of funds and would not benefit all members.

Kieran Seed/ Chathurika Ravindra
Alexander Blackwell Abstained.

4.3.1.iii Sydney University Chemical Engineering Society

There is still the issue that a pre-event form should have been submitted, especially considering the scale of the event. It is on the onus of the club to check their receipt.

Resolved

Kieran Seed/ Alexander Blackwell

4.3.1.iv STUCCO

BO asks about their correspondence with the C&S Office. NM explains that the handbook and regulations were sent to new executives clearly stating the deadline. Poor handover is not a good enough excuse for missing the deadline.

Resolved

To recommend to the Board of Directors to reject the funding appeal by STUCCO as they were given sufficient information and notice about the funding deadline.

Kieran Seed/ Chathurika Ravindra

4.3.3 Probationary Club Reviews

4.3.3.i Brotherhood Recreation and Outreach Society

BO notes that BROSoc had not filed for any funding, and on those grounds should be kept on probation. SP asks why they are not claiming funding, but based on the fact that they are still registering their events they should be accepted. The club has had no other issues.

Resolved

To recommend to the Board of Directors to accept the full club status of Brotherhood Recreation and Outreach Society.

Kieran Seed/ Alexander Blackwell

Brendan O’Shea Abstained.

4.3.3.ii Singapore Medical Society

Resolved

Kieran Seed/ Brendan O'Shea

4.3.3.iii Chinese Student Union of Health Science

KS notes his concerns that the Facebook group has 16 members and is a closed group. SP stated that the club has since followed the recommendation and held their AGM and a BBQ event.

Resolved

Kieran Seed/ Alexander Blackwell

4.3.4 Other

4.3.4.i Korean Student Association

Resolved

To recommend to the Board of Directors to keep Korean Student Association on probationary status until their 2017 AGM, and for a C&S Officer to monitor their stall and their AGM. Written communication from the C&S manager will also be given to the club to remind them of the importance of following C&S regulations, and that further wrong-doing would be taken very seriously.

Chathurika Ravindra/ Brendan O'Shea

SP thanks the C&S Committee for their commitment and good work this year.
